SENATE ENROLLED ACT No. 375

AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning trade regulations.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 24-4-9-13 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003]: Sec. 13. A rental company and renter may agree that the renter will be responsible for no more than all of the following:

- (1) Physical or mechanical damage to the rented vehicle up to its fair market value, as determined in the customary market for the sale of that vehicle resulting from collision regardless of the cause of damage.
- (2) Loss due to theft of the rental vehicle up to its fair market value, as determined in the customary market for the sale of that vehicle. However, the renter shall be presumed to have no liability for any loss due to theft if the renter or authorized driver:
 - (A) has possession of the ignition key furnished by the rental company or establishes that the ignition key furnished by the rental company was not in the vehicle at the time of the theft; and
 - (B) files an official report of the theft with the police or other law enforcement agency within twenty-four (24) hours of learning of the theft and reasonably cooperates with the rental company, police, and other law enforcement agency in providing information concerning the theft.

The presumption set forth in this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof, which the rental company may rebut by establishing that a renter or other authorized driver committed or aided and abetted in the commission of the theft.

(3) Physical damage to the rented vehicle up to its fair market value, as determined in the customary market for the sale of that vehicle, resulting from vandalism occurring after, or in connection with, the theft of the rented vehicle. However, the renter is presumed to have no liability for any loss due to vandalism if the renter or authorized driver:

(A) has possession of the ignition key furnished by the rental company or establishes that the ignition key furnished by the rental company was not in the vehicle at the time of the vandalism; and

(B) files an official report of the vandalism with the police or other law enforcement agency within twenty-four (24) hours of learning of the vandalism and reasonably cooperates with the rental company, police, and other law enforcement agency in providing information concerning the vandalism.

The presumption set forth in this subdivision is a presumption affecting the burden of proof, which the rental company may rebut by establishing that a renter or other authorized driver committed or aided and abetted in the commission of the vandalism.

(4) Physical damage to the rented vehicle and loss of use of the rented vehicle up to its fair market value, determined in the customary market for the sale of that vehicle, resulting from vandalism unrelated to the theft of the rented vehicle.

(5) Physical damage resulting from collision to the rented vehicle and loss of use of the rented vehicle resulting from collision, up to its fair market value, as determined in the customary market for the sale of that vehicle, resulting from the use of the rental vehicle by an unauthorized driver.

(6) Loss of use of the rented vehicle, if the renter is liable for damage.

~~(6)~~ (7) Actual charges for towing, storage, and impoundment fees paid by the rental company, if the renter is liable for damage.

~~(7)~~ (8) Reasonable attorney's fees related to the enforcement of the rental agreement.

(9) An administrative charge, including the cost of appraisal and all other costs and expenses incident to the damage, loss, loss of use, repair, or replacement of the rented vehicle.

FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2003]: Sec. 14. (a) The total amount of the renter's liability to the rental company resulting from damage to the rented vehicle may not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) The estimated cost of replacement parts that the rental company would have to pay to replace damaged vehicle parts, less all discounts and price reductions or adjustments that will be received by the rental company.

(2) The estimated cost of labor to replace damaged vehicle parts, which may not exceed the product of:

(A) the rate for labor usually paid by the rental company to replace vehicle parts of the type that were damaged; and

(B) the estimated time for replacement;

less all discounts and price reductions or adjustments that will be received by the rental company.

(3) The estimated cost of labor to repair damaged vehicle parts, which may not exceed the lesser of the following:

(A) The product of the rate for labor usually paid by the rental company to repair vehicle parts of the type that were damaged and the estimated time for repair.

(B) The sum of the estimated labor and parts costs determined under subdivisions (1) and (2) to replace the same vehicle parts.

All discounts and price reductions or adjustments that will be received by the rental company must be taken into account in determining the figure under this subdivision.

(4) Except as otherwise provided for, the loss of the use of the rented vehicle, which may not exceed the product of:

(A) the rental rate stated in the rental agreement for the particular vehicle rented, excluding optional charges; and

(B) the total of the estimated time for replacement and estimated time for repair.

(5) Actual charges for towing, storage, and impound fees paid by the rental company.

(b) Under any circumstances described in this chapter, liability for the rental company's loss of use of the rented vehicle may not exceed the product of:

(1) the rental rate stated in the rental agreement for the particular vehicle rented, excluding all optional charges; and

(2) eighty percent (80%) of the period from the date of the accident to the date the vehicle is ready to be returned to rental service.

However, a renter is not liable to a rental company for the loss of use of a damaged vehicle unless the ~~rentor~~ renter uses its best efforts to effect repairs and return the vehicle to rental service.

(c) The administrative charge described in section ~~13(7)~~ 13(9) of this chapter may not exceed:

(1) ten percent (10%) of the total estimated cost for parts and labor, if the damage is one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) or less; or

(2) the amount specified in subdivision (1) plus seven and one-half percent (7 1/2%) of the amount in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), if the total estimated cost for parts and labor exceeds one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).
